July 29, 2025

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

It is my sad duty to inform you of the death of our Assisting Bishop, the Right Reverend Daniel S. A. Allotey.

Bishop Allotey has been a beloved presence in our diocese for nearly a decade, offering leadership, support, mentorship, and pastoral care to countless clergy and many of our congregations.

His joyful proclamation of the gospel, his delight in serving God's people, and his clear articulation of Anglican theology have been tremendous gifts to our diocese. In every setting, his bright smile, infectious laughter, and genuine love embraced all who encountered him.

He died at Methodist Hospital in Brooklyn at approximately 11:30 p.m. last night, entering into the larger life of the resurrected Christ whom he loved and served so faithfully. I already miss him deeply and will continue to feel his absence in our diocesan gatherings and liturgies. Most of all, I will miss my friend and colleague.

Funeral arrangements are pending consultation with his family both here and in Ghana. We will share further details as soon as they are available.
+Larry

Rest eternal grant to him, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon him. May his soul, and the souls of all the departed, rest in peace. Amen.

BULLETIN INSERTS

August 3, 2025 – Pentecost 8 (C)
The Feast of the Transfiguration

August 6 is the Feast of the Transfiguration of Our Lord Jesus Christ, which commemorates Jesus' unveiling as the Son of God, and his radical change of appearance while in the presence of Peter, James and John on a mountaintop.

The Gospel of Matthew records that Jesus "was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became white as light." At this moment Moses and Elijah appeared, and they were talking with Jesus. Peter, misunderstanding the meaning of this manifestation, offered to make three "booths" (or "dwellings") for Jesus, Moses, and Elijah. A bright cloud overshadowed them and a voice from the cloud stated, "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him." The disciples fell on their faces in awe, but Jesus encouraged them to arise and "have no fear." When the disciples looked up, they saw only Jesus (Matthew 17:1-8).

The Transfiguration is also mentioned in two other gospel accounts (Mark 9:2-8 and Luke 9:28- 36) and is referred to in the Second Letter of Peter, which records that "we were eyewitnesses of his majesty" and "we were with him on the holy mountain" (2 Peter 1:16-18).

The Transfiguration is a pivotal moment because it revealed Christ's glory prior to the crucifixion, and it anticipated his resurrection and ascension. It also prefigures the glorification of human nature in Christ. Some think that the setting on the mountain is significant because it becomes the point where human nature meets God, with Jesus acting as a point of connection between heaven and earth.

Celebration of the Transfiguration began in the eastern church in the late fourth century. The feast is celebrated on August 6, which is the date of the dedication of the first church built on Mount Tabor, which is traditionally considered to be the "high mountain" of the Transfiguration. There are scholars, however, who believe the Transfiguration occurred either on Mount Hermon, which borders Syria and Lebanon, or on the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem.

Collect for the Transfiguration
O God, who on the holy mount revealed to chosen witnesses your well-beloved Son, wonderfully transfigured, in raiment white and glistening: Mercifully grant that we, being delivered from the disquietude of this world, may by faith behold the King in his beauty; who with you, O Father, and you, O Holy Spirit, lives and reigns, one God, for ever and ever. Amen (Book of Common Prayer, p. 243).
