October 23, 2022 – Pentecost 20 (C) Meet Episcopal Volunteers in Mission: Peter Bak

Hello, I'm Peter Bak, a missionary with Episcopal Volunteers in Mission (EVIM), serving part of each year in Tanzania. I was finally able to return to St. Philip's Theological College earlier this year. My last visit was back in early 2020 and, while I've been staying in touch virtually, it was so good to be back in-person. My parish has been supporting two students in their studies and I was able to be present for their graduation. I enjoyed getting back to work with Goodluck and Gracewell on some painting and building projects – and dealing with a big tree that fell onto the roof of one of our buildings during a storm. More than anything, it's been good to be back with friends and this wonderful community.

I chose to serve as an Episcopal Volunteer in Mission because I wanted to give back. Throughout my life, people have supported me in many different ways, and I wanted to share that gift with others. The first time I thought about being a missionary was when I was doing hospice visits back home in Rhode Island. I was able to train the first pitbull to serve in hospice in Rhode Island. Her name was Lucy and when I saw the affection shared between the clients and Lucy, I was filled with joy. Each time I was able to put a smile on someone's face, it felt fantastic. I wanted to serve as a missionary because I believed that it could also bring me that joy and offer me an opportunity to build relationships outside of what I have always known.

Like many ministries in the Church, there are many more needs than physical resources. That is why I quite often turn to prayer, asking for ideas about how to do a job with less. On my last visit, I took lots of pictures that capture the spirit of the seminary community and offer a glimpse of what I see daily when I'm in Tanzania. You can follow me on my blog: petergoestotanzania.wordpress.com.

Open to Episcopalians ages 30+, Episcopal Volunteers in Mission invites you to build relationships, share your gifts and skills, listen to and learn from partners around the world, and be open to the personal transformation that comes from meeting God in new ways. Missionaries are lay and ordained, young and old. They serve as teachers, accountants, doctors, administrators, theologians, agriculturalists, chaplains, and much more. Learn more at iam.ec/evim.

A special thank you to all who helped and contributed goodies over the past few months with coffee hour. It has been a wonderful time of sharing and enjoying getting to know each other better.

This Fall, we would like to continue with a more family/ help yourself style coffee hour at both the 8 and 10 services. The coffee, tea, cream ,water, and juice will be provided and prepared weekly for both services. We will rely on sharing snacks such as cake, cookies, doughnuts, fruit, vegetables, cheese, crackers, etc. So please share a snack when you can.

It has been wonderful to see members pitching in with cleanup. Many hands make the task easy. Coffee hour is meant to be a social time not an extra job.

Celebrate Life and Our Stories!

See you at Coffee Hour!

Diane Stewart

MORE THAN ENOUGH

About Humility

"All who exalt themselves will be humbled, but all who humble themselves will be exalted." – Luke 18:9-14

The Pharisee in today's Gospel parable stands up in the temple to pray. He reminds God that he is not like other people who fall short of God's expectations. He recounts to God his best behaviors - fasting and tithing.

When I envision this scene, I can't help but imagine the Pharisee's voice sounding like songwriter Mac Davis singing his hit, "Oh Lord it's hard to be humble, When you're perfect in every way; I can't wait to look in the mirror, Cause I get better looking each day..."

Why is Jesus concerned about our level of humility even when our faithful actions are good? Certainly we should strive to be good, to give generously, and to avoid sin. Yet it is the sinful person in this story who Jesus sets as our example.

In the parable, the first person is giving a speech to God. The second person is opening up his heart, admitting his weakness, and asking for God's merciful acceptance. He is humble enough to acknowledge that God is in control.

Such humility is a path toward a deeper, trusting relationship with God. Trusting God requires admitting that we need God. It means accepting that we are not so self-reliant that we can figure out all the answers, successfully battle every demon, and control our own destiny. Those are false narratives anyway. Humility keeps us honest.

Jesus' time on earth exemplifies one of the most beautiful realities of our faith: Our Creator craves a close relationship with each of us. We don't have to be perfect in every way. We just need to love and trust that what God provides will be more than enough. | tens.org

Imagine looking in the mirror and seeing a reflection of your relationship with God. How would you describe it?

How might generosity be connected to one's trusting relationship with God?

In serving others we often find humility. How has service to others helped deepen your relationship with God?
