Saint Mark's Episcopal Church
Vestry Meeting Minutes
March 21, 2023, 6:30 p.m. via Zoom

Members Present: Fr. Chris Jubinski, Diane Stewart, Sandy Wyman, Steve DeCaro, Diane Feil, Tom Horan, Marj Kulesa, Ashley McLean, Barbara Pettus, Tom Simson

Fr. Chris called the meeting to order at 6:31 p.m. with a prayer.

Minutes: A motion was made by Diane, seconded by Tom Horan, to approve the minutes from the February 28, 2023 Vestry meeting.

Saint Mark's Logo: Ali Christensen joined the meeting to present two potential new logos for Saint Mark's. After Fr Chris reached out to the congregation with some initial ideas for a new logo, Ali, who has her own design firm, offered to help with the effort. John Plate and Fr Chris joined her on the committee. Ali explained that a logo has five criteria. It should be simple, iconic, relevant, scaleable and memorable - and not have too much detail. She presented two options - a more traditional logo with a shield and cross and one that "pushed boundaries a bit" with a lion. Ali also introduced a new font and the Vestry agreed to spell out "Saint" instead of using "St". After much discussion, Fr Chris asked for a vote and the lion received seven votes with the shield/cross receiving three.

Parochial Report: Fr Chris presented a Parochial Report as revised by Tom Simson after confirmation from the auditors about how to handle service fees from a tax consultant. A motion was made by Diane and seconded by Barbara to approve it.

Finance Report:

Bright Beginnings: February tuition receipts of $72K were up 8% compared to $67.3K in February 2022, while February expenses of $89K were up 9% compared to $80K in February 2022. Tom noted that salaries are up 17.3% year over year. Net YTD income for 2023 was $-10,958 vs $516 YTD 2022. $24K in grant money remains on the balance sheet, after a correction transfer. (The grant money is from NY State to be used for specific purposes, one of which is staff development.)

SMC: Tom S reported a monthly operating loss in February of approximately $47K vs a loss of $34K in February 2022. (An audit fee of $10K+ was paid in February.) February 2023 regular donations are $7K versus $12K for February 2022. February 2023 Facility Income of $347 was down 87% compared to $2,747 in January 2022, but Tom mentioned that comparing these 2 numbers does not indicate the real extent of the drop in facility income since there has now been no rental income from the Beinecke Building for a full year. February 2023 Salary and Benefit Expenses are higher than February 2022, with Salary Expense up 10% to $14.5K vs $13.7K in 2022, and Benefit Expense up 7% to $9.1K vs $8.5K in 2022.

Endowment: The reported balance as of 3/20/23 was$ 1,261,593, compared to a balance of $1,320K at the end of January 2023.

Six year projections: Tom reviewed a presentation he gave to the lawyer of the proposed tenant of the Beinecke Building using various income and expense projections. The conclusion was that, if SMC is not able to rent the Beinecke Building and therefore has no revenue from that location, SMC will go out of business in 2027.

Safe Church: Tom Horan reviewed the requirements for the Safe Church training about sexual abuse and harrassment. Those who completed the training two years ago do not need to repeat it. He will contact the members of the staff, teachers and volunteer guilds who still need to complete it.

Announcements / Upcoming Events:

- Fr. Chris encouraged members of the Vestry to attend as many of the Holy Week celebrations as they could. There will be at least four baptisms at the Easter Vigil on Saturday at 6:00 pm. There will be a trumpeter at the 10 am Easter service and bagpipers on Palm Sunday.
- Fr. Chris reminded those who head committees to get their reports to Kate by the end of March.
- Marj Kulesa reported from Invite Welcome Connect that there will be an Easter Egg hunt again this year. Marge DeCaro and Diane Feil will be organizing and Fr Chris will ask for candy donations in the newsletter.

Adjournment and Closing Prayer: The meeting was adjourned at 8:03 p.m. with Compline.

Next Vestry Meeting: Vestry meetings are normally held on the 3rd Tuesday of the month at 6:30 p.m. The next scheduled meeting is April 18. The Annual Meeting is tentatively scheduled for May 7.

Respectfully submitted,
Barbara Pettus for Carol Fitton, Clerk

BULLETIN INSERTS

April 23, 2023 – Easter 3 (A)
Week 3: Reflections on the Resurrection

During the Easter season, Sermons That Work is pleased to present reflections from some of the newest bishops of The Episcopal Church on the resurrection of our Lord. Check back each week for a brief exploration of how Jesus Christ's rising from the grave changes everything. To listen to this reflection, scan the QR code on this page and subscribe to the Sermons That Work podcast.

On December 30, the church celebrates the feast day of the Blessed Frances Joseph-Gaudet. Ms. Gaudet, the daughter of an enslaved man, was born in 1861 in a log cabin in Pike County, Mississippi. After moving to New Orleans to attend college, Ms. Gaudet became a significant philanthropist at the turn of the century. She is known as a prison reformer, missionary, advocate, and educator. With her determined spirit, she provided leadership that bridged diverse segments of society to affect social change. The Gaudet Normal and Industrial School of Black Youth was known for its academic excellence. In addition to many other social reforms, Ms. Gaudet was also the driving force behind the establishment of the first juvenile court in New Orleans.

In this Easter season, as the light of the Paschal candle burns brightly, I reflect upon the ministry of this incredible woman who worked relentlessly to better the lives of those in her community. Throughout her life, she knew that faith could not be practiced in the dark. She made the hard choices that came with sitting with those in need and wrestling with tough questions about who we are and how we are to engage the Gospel in a broken world. She lived her life holding true to the tenet that the world desperately needs us to be harbingers of the light, because it just might be the only light that someone will experience. Luke 12 reminds us: "Whatever you have said in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have whispered behind closed doors will be proclaimed from the housetops." What an incredible responsibility we are called to as Christians!

I believe that it takes both courage and vulnerability to be able to step into the light and be this light for others. Jesus is clear that those who find their life will lose it and those who lose their life for his sake will find it. In addition, we also hold tightly to the charge to be bold in our faith and to let die those things that keep us from fully committing ourselves to the work of God. And, in the end, the life and light will come. How do we do this? This Easter season reminds us that each day presents a choice and that the cycle of death and resurrection is continuous and profound. Every moment is an opportunity. In this journey, we are to be strong and courageous, for the Lord our God is with us wherever we go. Darkness, light, or even in-between, we are God's, and we are never outside of God's grasp.

Today, the legacy of Blessed Frances Joseph-Gaudet continues in the Episcopal Diocese of Louisiana. Funds are administered yearly through the Gaudet Scholarship Program as well as for other grant programs benefiting underserved children and families in the New Orleans and Baton Rouge areas. In this Easter season, I pray that I may live like Ms. Gaudet.

The Rt. Rev. Shannon Rogers Duckworth was ordained and consecrated on November 19, 2022, as the 12th bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Louisiana. A 2001 graduate of The General Theological Seminary, Bishop Duckworth served in the Diocese of Mississippi until her call in 2013 as canon to the ordinary to the Rt. Rev. Morris K. Thompson, Jr.

BIBLE STUDIES THAT WORK

Easter 3 (A)
April 23, 2023

[RCL] Acts 2:14a,36-41; Psalm 116:1-3, 10-17; 1 Peter 1:17-23; Luke 24:13-35

Acts 2:14a, 36-41

This is part of Peter's sermon at Pentecost. After the Holy Spirit has been poured out on the crowd and Peter has told them that Jesus is risen, the crowd asks Peter what they should do about it. What does the Resurrection demand of them? Peter tells them to turn from their sins and respond to God's call through baptism. He also reassures them that the promises of the Resurrection are for them – and not for them only, but for anyone.

- What does the Resurrection demand of you?
- Do you have any sacred memories related to baptism or water?

Psalm 116:1-3, 10-17

"There is no pit so deep that the love of God is not deeper still," writes Corrie ten Boom. The Psalmist writes here that their grief entangled them, dragging them down into a deep pit of despair (v. 2). And yet, the love of God was with them in their grief. Even in death, God will be with them (v. 13). The Psalmist praises God for liberating them from their bonds, as if they had been tied up and are now set free.

- How do you pray when it seems God has not inclined an ear to you?
- What does the liberating love of God mean for you – and what does it mean for your view of justice?

1 Peter 1:17-23

The author of this letter describes our new life in Christ as seeds, though not like the seeds of plants that grow but eventually die away. Jesus' resurrection has planted a seed that grows into a plant that will never die. The hardy plant that grows from following Jesus is "genuine mutual love" and can "love one another deeply from the heart."

- How have you seen little seeds of love grow into flourishing plants?
- Where in your life can you plant more of these seeds?

Luke 24:13-35

The Walk to Emmaus is a famous passage. Jesus is walking down the road with some of his friends after he was raised from the dead, but they do not recognize him! He even talked about Scripture with them, asked them for the latest news around Jerusalem, and was invited to stay the night with them – and still, they think he is a stranger. Eventually, he breaks bread with them, and they finally see Jesus for who he is.

- Have you ever felt that something about Christ was revealed to you at the Eucharist?
- Have you ever noticed the presence of God in a stranger?
- Have you ever felt God's presence at a meal?

The church lies at the very center of the eternal purpose of God. It Is not a divine afterthought. It is not an accident of history.
