Upcoming Dementia Programs

The Impact of Alzheimer's and Dementia in our Community

This program offers a comprehensive overview of Alzheimer's Disease and dementia, highlighting the profound impact dementia has on caregivers. Participants will gain valuable insights into the free support and resources available through the Alzheimer's Association, while also learning about preventative measures and early detection strategies to better manage and understand this challenging disease.

Building the Foundations of Caregiving

This program explores the role of caregiver and changes they may experience, building a support team and managing caregiver stress. Caring for someone living with dementia brings a unique set of challenges and rewards. With the right help and support, you can empower yourself to provide quality care while managing your own well-being.

Tell Out My Soul

Bursting Forth: An Epiphany Reflection

Because of when Easter falls in 2025, we get all eight Sundays of Epiphany this year: Eight opportunities to read and learn how the spirit of the law, the new life that Jesus came to proclaim, spreads throughout the world. This Epiphany is all about the Truth being revealed. It is a Truth that not everyone welcomes the same way - when Jesus reveals the wisdom of the scrolls, or when he tells us we must love those who wish us harm - these are hard truths to accept. It's not all wedding wine and divine blessings in the Temple - Truth settles on each of us.

The thing about the Truth that Jesus brings is that it is so wonderful, so different, so transformative, that it needs to be shared. It can barely be contained. Our hearts, our mouths, our souls cannot hold back. "Tell out my soul," Mary sang to the Angel. It is as if to say, I have learned something so beautiful that I simply must share it, it is impossible to keep to myself.

The Epiphany asks much of us. It asks us to reflect on an internal moment of awareness, of spiritual awakening, and find the words and ways to share it with the world. As Christ is made manifest to the whole world, unbound by social convention, religious authority, or political geography, we too are called to seek the neighbor beyond our immediate vicinity to accompany, to teach, to love.

The theological mystery of the Epiphany calls us to have one foot in the spiritual, deeply personal realm of revelation and the other foot in the world, learning how to seek and serve those who most need our help. We learn about the movement of the Spirit through Jesus and are motivated into ministering with him to the outcast, the stranger, and to those who most need to feel the warmth and light of His love. tens.org

Questions for Reflection:

What are some ways that ministering to others has helped you leave your comfort zone?

Cn. J. Davey Gerhard serves as Executive Director of TENS: The Episcopal Network for Stewardship and has a particular fondness for the season of light and love.

Dear People of the Diocese of Long Island,

Welcome to the Bishop Transition Process!

The Diocese of Long Island continues to be engaged in a sacred and hopeful season of discernment as we prepare to call our ninth bishop. As the Search Committee completes its ministry and soon presents the final slate of candidates, the Transition Committee now begins its work of accompanying the diocese through every stage of what comes next. We are grateful for the many prayers, conversations, and faithful efforts that have brought us to this moment.

We undertake this ministry committed to prayer, transparency, integrity, and deep listening, trusting that God is present and active in the life of our diocese and in the voices of its people. Our hope is to serve the whole diocese with care and clarity as, together, we listen for where the Holy Spirit is leading.

In the months ahead, we invite clergy and parishioners across the diocese to learn about the candidates, participate in listening sessions and diocesan gatherings, and join together in prayer for the future of the Diocese of Long Island. This is a shared journey, and your engagement, questions, reflections, and prayers are an essential part of the discernment entrusted to us.

More information about coming events, resources, and ways to participate will be shared soon. We invite you to stay connected by regularly visiting www.dioceseli.org/bishopsearch, where updates and announcements will be posted as they become available.

Please continue to hold this process, the candidates, and our diocese in your prayers as we seek the guidance of the Holy Spirit together.

In Christ,

The Transition Committee for the Ninth Bishop of Long Island
